Description

A Flemish pastoral tapestry from the late 17th or early 18th century, possibly Audenarde or Delft, envisioning a courtly figure astride a horse in a wooded landscape, with his fellow nobleman following close behind, and asking a peasant if he has seen the lost animals.

Hanging: The tapestry comes ready for hanging, with linen backing and a strip of hook and loop tape at the top end, which can be connected to the opposite side of the supplied hook and loop tape, which could be tacked to your wall. For those who prefer the use of a tapestry rod, we can add the appropriate size loops to accommodate your needs. We now have a large selection of antique tapestry rods available as well, which we can provide detail upon request.
